

Zvonko Ivanušič was appointed chairman of the management board in 2008 after serving four years on the Board as deputy chairman. Mr. Ivanušič joined the Company in 2002 as a consultant to the management board. Before joining Sava Re, he was the Minister of Finance of the Republic of Slovenia in 2000. He has held various executive positions, including chairman of the management board of Slovenica Insurance Company from 1997 to 2000, chairman of the board of Kmečka družba from 1994 to 1997, and general manager at Belt-Livar Črnomelj from 1993 to 1994. He is also a president of the Supervisory Board of Tilia (since 2007), before that he was a member of the Supervisory Board. Mr. Ivanušič holds a master's degree in economics and the title of graduated economist from the University of Ljubljana, and the title of university graduated economist from the University of Maribor.